Welcome to Padstow School Nursery

As of yesterday, Padstow Nursery have joined Padstow School! We are very pleased to welcome them into our school community and want to say a huge thank-you to Julie, Lisa and the committee of Padstow Pre-School for their many years of hard work and dedication: we know that the children enjoyed their time at the pre-school enormously and that was due to them. Our plan for Padstow School Nursery, as it shall now be called, is to continue making the most of the superb resources we have inherited: the great outdoor space, engaged staff and variety of playing and learning resources, but with a few improvements too. Nursery parents have received more information about changes such as longer opening hours and an introduction to Mrs Parsons, the new Nursery Manager. If you would like to find out more, do look at the Nursery pages on our website:

We look forward to working even more closely with the Nursery into the future.

Cormorant class planting seeds

During this summer term we are making the most of the good weather by learning outdoors. Cormorant class have been planting seeds this week and have also been experimenting with where best to plant seeds so that they germinate. This ties in with the science aspect of their current topic of 'allotment'.
