Glossary

A small group of musicians who play music together.  Chant  To say or sing a word or phrase over and over again.  Choir  A group of people who sing together.  Chorus  A part of a song that is repeated several times, usually after each verse.  Conductor  A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  Cynamics  The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  Cinstrument  An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Cyrics  The words of a song.  Marching band  A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Melody  A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  Music  Tuneful sounds made by voices, musical instruments or computers.	band
The steady pulse that you feel in a piece of music.  Chant  To say or sing a word or phrase over and over again.  Choir A group of people who sing together.  Chorus A part of a song that is repeated several times, usually after each verse.  Conductor A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  Clynamics The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  Chastrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Clyrics The words of a song.  Charting band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Charting band A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  Charting music
To say or sing a word or phrase over and over again.  Choir A group of people who sing together.  Chorus A part of a song that is repeated several times, usually after each verse.  Conductor A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  Chynamics The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  Cinstrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Clyrics The words of a song.  Marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  Music	beat The ste
A group of people who sing together.  Chorus A part of a song that is repeated several times, usually after each verse.  Conductor A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  Clynamics The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  Cinstrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Clyrics The words of a song.  Charaching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Conductor  Conductor  A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.
A part of a song that is repeated several times, usually after each verse.  Conductor A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  dynamics The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  Instrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Lyrics The words of a song.  marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.
A person who directs the performance of a choir or orchestra.  dynamics The loudness or softness of a piece of music.  instrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  lyrics The words of a song.  marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.
Instrument An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Lyrics The words of a song.  Marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.
An object that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a musical instrument.  Lyrics The words of a song.  Marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  Melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  Music
The words of a song.  marching band A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  music	An obj	ect that is played to make music. A piano, drum, guitar or xylophone is a
A group of musicians who play instruments and march at the same time.  melody A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound.  music
A tune made up of a series of musical notes that make a memorable sound. music

note A musical sound or a written sym	bol that represents	this sound.
orchestra A large group of people who play by a conductor.	different musical in	struments together and are led
percussion Instruments that make a sound w drums, cymbals and maracas.	hen they are struck	, scraped or rattled, such as
performance A play, concert or song that is pre	esented to an audie
pitch The level of a sound.
pulse The beat in a piece of music.	•••••••••••	••••••••••••
rhyme Words that have the same final so	ound such as sad an	ıd mad.
rhythm The pattern of sounds, words or n	iotes.	•••••••••••
sound Anything that you can hear.
tempo The speed of a piece of music.
verse A part of a song that tells a story	-	-
volume The loudness of a sound.	••••••••••	••••••••••••